RE: 30 Day Post-General Report (10/19/2000 - 11/27/2000)

Dear Mr. Ciaraldi:

This letter is in response to your recent request for additional information regarding the Republican National Committee's 30 Day Post-General Report.

After careful review of the Schedule A of this report we did in fact deposit the check from Consumer Freedom PAC in to the wrong account. We have contacted the contributor and have received authorization to transfer these funds to our non-federal account and have done so today June 6, 2001. We are also contacting the contributor in writing for verification of this transaction. We are amending the Schedule A for Line 11 (c) to show that all contributions listed on this schedule are Federal Political Action Committees. The transfer to the non-federal account for Boland Trane Associates was done on 12/01/2000.

We received two checks from the Washington State Party one check for $15,000 and the other for $185,000. Both checks were deposited into the federal account on November 15, 2000. There was no indication on the face of the checks or accompanying documentation that any of these funds came from non-federal sources. Based on your inquiry it has been determined that the $15,000 check was transferred from the state party's federal account. However, the check for $185,000 was in fact drawn from the state party's non-federal account. The appropriate transfer from the RNC federal to the non-federal account was made 6/7/2001.

We received a check from the Republican Party of Kentucky from its "federal election account" and deposited on 11/15/2000.

We are amending Schedule A for Line 17. We did not accept funds over the federal limit as you have stated in your letter. The transfer in question was excess campaign funds. Allowed under 2 U.S.C. 439a.

We are amending Schedule B for Line 23 to show funds given to Rick Keller for Congress were for Primary Debt Retirement. The funds given to him for the run off were returned to the RNC on April 12, 2001.
